OCTOBER 2, 2017

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

A BILL

To authorize the Attorney General to award grants to eligible entities to prevent or alleviate community violence by providing education, mentoring, and counseling services to children, adolescents, teachers, families, and community leaders on the principles and practice of nonviolence.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Securing American
5 Families by Educating and Training You (SAFETY)
6 Through Nonviolence Act of 2017”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) The concept and practice of nonviolent
4 thoughts, words, and actions have a history and a
5 legacy in the United States and the global commu-
6 nity.

7 (2) In the 19th century, American philosophers
8 and authors Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry
9 David Thoreau were leaders of the transcendentalist
10 philosophical movement which emphasized the poten-11 tial good of humanity, the importance of truth, and 12 the courage and power of peace.

13 (3) In the early 20th century, Mohandas (Ma-14 hatma) Gandhi advanced the concepts and practices
15 of ahimsa, or non-injury, and satya, or truth as inte-
16 gral to social and active concepts and practices.

17 (4) Gandhi continued Thoreau's ideas of Civil 18 Disobedience in developing the doctrine of satyagra-
19 ha which connects truth and nonviolence to active ef-
20 forts in nonviolent, civil disobedience.

21 (5) Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., built upon 22 these philosophies in developing six principles of 23 nonviolence. He explained these to be a way of life 24 which sought to build friendships and under-25 standing, defeat injustice, accept suffering as a way
26 to educate and transform, and to choose love instead

1 of hate. Nonviolence's strength is reinforced by the 2 universe siding with justice.

3 (6) Rev. James E. Lawson, Jr., a leading theo-
4 rist and strategist, helped spread the philosophy and 5 doctrine of nonviolence by organizing and teaching
6 workshops to young activists during the American
7 Civil Rights Movement.

8 (7) During his Presidency, Nelson Rolihlahla
9 Mandela expanded the spirit of ubuntu, the African 10 philosophy of the interconnectedness, caring, shar-
11 ing, and harmony of humanity, throughout the 12 world.

13 (8) According to the 2017 Global Peace Index, 14 violence cost $14,300,000,000 in 2016. The fiscal 15 loss resulting from conflict greatly exceeds invest-16 ments in peacebuilding and peacekeeping.

17 (9) Given its proven success and evolution, the 18 philosophy and doctrine of nonviolence can and 19 should play an important role in breaking the cycle
20 and reducing the frequency of violence throughout 21 the United States and as a model to the global com-
22 munity.

23 (10) These lessons, principles, and practices
24 should be made available to Americans of all ages
25 and backgrounds in all parts of the country.

10 tion, the Attorney General shall give priority to applicants

16 adopt innovative, integrated, community-based vio-
17 lence prevention programs.

22 development.

24 entity” means a State or local government entity (includ-
